Aviation Inventory Resources and Great Lakes Airlines Sign Surplus Parts Sales Agreement

For Immediate Release:
July 21, 2014 - Mansfield, Texas

Aviation Inventory Resources, a world leader in the support of turboprop regional airline operators, announced today that it has signed an agreement with Great Lakes Airlines to market and sell the airline's inventory of surplus parts. The multi-year agreement covers Great Lakes' Embraer EMB-120 Brasilia and Beechcraft 1900 inventory on a worldwide basis.

"We are very pleased to forge this partnership with Great Lakes, which is one of the world's most experienced and highly regarded operators of the Beech 1900 aircraft," said Morgan Whitehead, Vice President of Operations for Aviation Inventory Resources. "This project offers AIR the opportunity to bring the world's largest surplus B1900 inventory as well as Great Lakes' massive EMB-120 inventory, to our worldwide customer base. This agreement helps cement our position as one of the industry's foremost turboprop experts. Whether it's the ATR42/ATR72, Saab 340, the 1900D or the EMB-120, A.I.R. has one of the largest inventories, and some of the most operationally experienced people in the business."
